

David Farirai

President: International Education Association of South Africa (IEASA)

david.farirai@up.ac.za

Career History

- University of Pretoria
Position: Head of Corporate International Relations
- United States Agency for International Development (USAID)
Position: Higher Education Development Specialist
- University of the North
Director: Institutional and Strategic Planning
- Eastern Cape Technikon
Director: Institutional Planning and Research
- National Department of Education
Higher Education Information Manager

Leadership Roles

- President: International Education Association of South Africa
- Board member: African Network for International Education
- University of Pretoria representative on Africa-USA Partnership
- Committee member: Institute of International Education (Mobility Project)
- Chairperson: Glenstantia School, Parents Association
- Member: University of Pretoria's Directors' Forum
- Senior Management Committee: University of Pretoria
- Vice Chairman: South African Association of Institutional Researchers (past)

Consultancy Work

- Academy for Educational Development (USA): Southern African Regional Project
- Coleman Research Group (USA) to advise the Select Equity Group (USA)
- Training Project Management to the employees of the Department of Housing in the Eastern Cape Provincial Government
- Irish Aid: Analysis of the funding of the higher education bursary project
- USAID: Funding impact evaluation of the Tertiary Education Linkages Project.
- USAID: Needs Identification and Gap Analysis for the Higher Education HIV/AIDS project.
- Department of Education: An analysis of the Three Year Rolling Plans of the Universities in South Africa

Education

- MSc. Project Management: University of Cape Town
- BA (Hons) Public Management: University of Pretoria
- BA: Social Sciences: University of Zimbabwe
- International Higher Education Management: Vanderbilt University (USA)
- Entrepreneurship Management in Universities: UNESCO/IIE (France)