

Deputy President: IEASA
hodgesm@cput.ac.za

Education

Masters in Education (M.Ed: Science Education (structured)) from the University of Leeds (1989-1990
B.Ed) BSc & Bsc Hons and HDE from the University of the Western Cape

Career History

Currently I serve as Director International affairs being TELP Manager from 1996 to 2004
In this project I managed senior staff expending a budget funded by USAID of R14m. I served as Lecturer between 1975 and 1996 and served as Curriculum Developer at the Science Education Project between 1991 – 1995.

Leadership Roles

- Coordinator of the WEXDEV – ANT – Pen Tech – FAWESA Project; Developing Women in Executive Positions.
- Coordinator of the HERS – SA CONFERENCE –Women in Higher Education Coordinator of the HERS – SA WOMEN IN LEADERSHIP PROGRAMME – Boston ,
- Award for TELP coordinator of the Quarter and for Professional service. A story was published on my contribution to Education from 1997-2006 in a USAID publication.
- Grant holder of the NRF Research Team of women NRF - Science Education Project:
- Coordinator of Peninsula Technikon / WCED/ Kings College (London) Project: Large Class Teaching in Science
- Coordinator of British Council Links Project – Staff development in Science education.
- Coordinator of AusAid Technology development project producing 12 Technology Modules.
- Coordinator of the USAID- TELP-funded project through which the institution gained a budget of R14million for institutional development. Three journals were produced on the CPUT Flagship projects and Gender Equity development in South Africa
- Coordinator of European and Scandinavian Service Learning Education Tour to introduce IaH through S-L to CPUT's European and Scandinavian partners such as HAN Netherlands, Bergen University College Norway and Malmo University Sweden
- Research proposal to investigate the effects on IaH through the Buddy-Model at CPUT: Institution-Wide case studies; faculty case studies, departmental case studies and Individual case studies are reported on.

Consultancy Work

I have lead research in the areas of teacher development and learning over a number of years and participated in a number of publications. The most important journals published in International journals are listed below. I Presented numerous papers at international conferences